Campaign For Unborn Children Seeks to convince good men and women of the evil of abortion and of the need to speak out to others, as well as providing them with tools to speak out more effectively. The mission has three areas of focus - the high number of abortions among the black community in Georgia, the fact that many Catholics are indifferent to the abortion issue, and encouraging the use of graphic images to communicate the reality of abortion. The Catechism of the Catholic Church provides a very complete summary of the teachings of our Church. The parish of St. John Borromeo in Picayune, MS, has done an excellent job in providing a Web version of the Catechism. It is searchable by topic as well as having linked versions of the index and the table of contents. (<http://www.scborromeo.org/ccs.htm>)

The Catholic Encyclopedia gives authoritative information on Catholic interests, action, and doctrine. What the Church teaches and has taught; what she has done and is still doing for the highest welfare of mankind; her methods, past and present; her struggles, her triumphs, for the broadening and deepening of all true science, literature and art -- all come within the scope of the Catholic Encyclopedia.
