

Stuff

Other Apologetic and Catechetical Resources

The Bible and the Church

This document can be kept as a reference to show others how the Bible clearly describes that an authoritative church will lead Christians. The first page can be kept handy (perhaps in your Bible). The scripture references are linked to the associated passages.

The Bible and Catholic Teachings

Some people consider Catholic teachings and practices and teachings to be contrary to Sacred Scripture. This document shows Biblical support for controversial Catholic teachings. Each of the topics is linked to supporting Scripture and a brief discussion. The first page can be kept handy (perhaps in your Bible).

Catholic Timeline

The Catholic Timeline provides a detailed history of the Catholic Church presented alongside the list of popes. Saints, events in the Church, and events in the world are briefly described with links to each of the references. Links take the reader to sources such as the Vatican Web site or the Catholic Encyclopedia (for Church topics) or Wikipedia for world events. Although the Catholic Church is a divinely established institution, this timeline shows that it has a REAL history for the past two millennia.

Bible Citations in the Catechism of the Catholic Church

This is a Bible study tool for Catholics. All of the references to Sacred Scripture in the Catechism of the Catholic Church are provided with links. But there is more.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church...in brief

This document compiles all of the "in brief" catechetical statements in the Catechism of the Catholic Church with links to the associated sections of the actual Catechism. The "in brief" statements provide an excellent overview or summary of Catholic teachings.

Summaries of the Documents of the Second Vatican Council

Each of the sixteen documents, constitutions and decrees is provided with a one-page summary of the topics covered.

The Four Gospels Together

The following documents tie together the related stories in the four Gospels. Each of the documents provides the sequence of the selected Gospel and shows parallel passages in the other Gospels. The "Logical Sequence" harmonizes all of the passages into a logical sequence originally proposed by the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

Matthew

Mark

Luke

John

Logical Sequence

Examinations of Conscience

for Children

This examination is written for pre-teen (or young teen).

for Teens

This brochure provides an examination of conscience for teens (and young adults) still in the care of their parents, serious about their faith, and striving to reach holiness in their current state.

for Adults

This brochure provides an examination of conscience, focusing on the more serious offenses that adults can make.

Apostolate for Family Consecration Examination of Conscience

This brochure provides an examination of conscience for adults who are more serious about their faith and have made a more serious commitment to holiness. It focuses on less serious sins and underlying reasons for sin.

Christian Prayer Brochure

This brochure summarizes the teaching of the Catechism. Each of the statements includes a reference to the section of the Catechism from which the statement was based.

Breaking Open the Word

This document provides a clear strategy for conducting breaking open the word in RCIA, including a one-page handout for participants.